

The attempt by the NAB to stifle XM Satellite Radio's (XM) programming offered to its subscribers (specifically traffic and weather reporting stations) is an unbelievably blatant and transparent attempt to limit XM's freedom to offer programming that might compete and therefore remove their members base of listeners and therefore their commercial advertising income. It is an infringement of XM's 1st amendment rights at its worst. This is a petition that should be dismissed on its face as an unconstitutional demand.